

AHMAD

AIJAZ

CHAIRMAN AND CEO

PanGro Development Advisors

Professional Experience:

Aijaz Ahmad has extensive experience in project finance, infrastructure development, public private partnerships, privatisation and private sector development. The focus of his experience has been in: Conducting investment needs and options analysis; Evaluating project feasibility studies; Preparing project procurement documents; Evaluating investment proposals and bids; Negotiating contracts; Drafting standardised contracts; Developing enabling policies and strategies; Drafting legislations, regulations, guidelines, practice notes and frameworks; Providing hands-on technical assistance throughout the entire investment project life cycle; Developing and running training and capacity development programmes; Developing communication strategies, and facilitating stakeholder consultations.

At present Mr. Ahmad is the Chairman & CEO of PanGro Development Advisors. Before this he was the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of the Infrastructure Project Development Facility (IPDF), Ministry of Finance, Pakistan. Earlier he was a Senior Infrastructure Specialist in the Infrastructure Economics and Finance (IEF) Department of the World Bank, Washington, DC, USA. Before joining the World Bank Mr. Ahmad was the Head of the PPP Unit, National Treasury, South Africa. Mr. Ahmad helped pioneer South Africa's PPP programme, which is rated as one of the best in developing countries.

Mr. Ahmad's country experience includes assignments in Brazil, Costa Rica, Egypt, Kuwait, India, Indonesia, Japan, Jordan, Maldives, Mauritius, Pakistan, Poland, Saudi Arabia, Solomon Islands, South Africa, Syria, USA and Yemen.