

DAVIE

JOHN

CHAIRMAN

Altra Capital Limited

CHAIRMAN

UK Government's Advisory Group on PPP

Education:

John is a Visiting Professor at the London Metropolitan Business School. He has a BSc and an MBA. He has Fellowships of the Royal Society of Arts, the Chartered Management Institute, and the Royal Society of Public Health, and memberships of several professional organisations. He spent his early life in Scotland and was educated at The Glasgow Academy.

Professional Experience:

John Davie is Chairman of the UK Government's Advisory Group on Public Private Partnerships (PPP). He is a member of the UKTI Financial Services Sector Advisory Board and a past Chairman of British Expertise. John is a founder member of IFSL's Islamic Finance in Business working group.

John works in the private sector where he is Chairman of Altra Capital; a City-based independent asset management venture. Altra is focused on the MENA (Middle East North Africa) region. John also leads the international business team at Vector, one of the UK's premier international management consultancies providing professional services principally in the infrastructure and real estate sectors. He manages PPP and due diligence commissions acting for banks and investors in privatisations and other infrastructure developments.

John has been advising on privatisations and PPPs for many years and has been advising government and the private sector since establishing the Project Finance working group at British Expertise in 2000. He has held senior positions in financial services, development companies and management companies.